(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., May 20.—John Henderson, the negro brute who attempted an assault upon Miss Holding in Wake Forest township yesterday afternoon, and was brought to Wake county jail last night, is suffering from the shot wounds inflicted by the father of the young lady, F. C. Holding, in capturing him. The preliminary trial of the negro is to take place Thursday of next week. The negro, a stout, black fellow, about thirty-five years old, was begging at the farm houses in that section for some days. He came to the Holding residence, went to the kitchen door, and asked Miss Holding for something to eat. She was preparing a sandwich for him when he came at her with a knife. Her screams brought her father and two brothers to her aid. The negro struck one of the boys and ran. The shotgun in the house was charged with birdshot only. The father took this and fired the load into the negro's back as he ran. Mr. Holding is a deputy sheriff. He says that only consideration of the obligation he is under as an officer of the law restrained him from killing the negro on the spot.

of alcohol—an aid to digestion. That's beer. If you get a pure beer—well aged—nothing is better for you.

It is not good advice to say "Don't drink beer."

There are many who need it.

Your doctor advises beer. The healthiest peoples of the world drink the most of it.

But it is good advice to say, "Don't drink the wrong beer." Some beer causes biliousness. Schlitz does not.

Schlitz beer is both good and good for you. Nine people in ten would be better for drinking it. Schlitz is the home beer, because of its absolute purity. It is aged for months, then filtered, then sterilized. There are no after effects.

Ask for the Brewery Bottling.
Common beer is sometimes substituted for Schlitz.

While Mr. Booz had been an invalid for thirty years, his death came unexpectedly, and was a profound shock to his family and friends.

Mr. Booz was a brave Confederate soldier, a member of Anderson's Battery of the Potomac Artillery, and it was from exposure during the war that he brought on ill health, which he has borne with remarkable patience and Christian fortitude. Thirty-nine years ago he was married to Miss Mildred Mansfield, of Franklin county, and is

DEATHS.
THOMAS.—Died, suddenly, of apoplexy, May 16th, at his home in Fluvanna county, Va., HENRY ARCHER THOMAS, aged sixty-seven years. Another old Confederate soldier has gone to join the "vast majority." The old comrades who helped him fight for the dear "lost cause" tenderly laid the remains to rest, beside those of his first wife, formerly Miss Norella Harrison, just as the sun was lowering in the west, typical of the life gone on in that its work were nearly done. Unswerving in his loyalty to the dear Southland, he told the writer, "I never surrendered. I was simply overcome." He never tired of fighting over the battles gained or lost so long ago. Mr. Thomas belonged to the Nineteenth Virginia Regiment, Company C. He is survived by his second wife, formerly Miss Josephine Spangler, of Fluvanna county, and the following children, all of whom were at the old home to see the dear father laid to rest: Dr. C. M. Thomas and Mrs. J. W. Cosby, of Healing Springs, Va.; Miss Nellie Thomas, of Little Thomas, Va.; Mrs. Mary Thomas, of Richmond, Va.; (trained nurse); Miss Richard Thomas, of Washington, D. C.; also a trained nurse; Mrs. H. M. Thomas, of Richmond, Va.; Mr. Kyle Thomas, of Fluvanna county, Va., and little Sadie, the child of his old age, and the very shadow of the father, who stood by him when he was stricken down. He also left two sisters, Mrs. Fannie Mason and Mrs. Mollie Via, of Goodland county, and one brother, Mr. Smith Thomas, of Fluvanna county, Va. The choir of his church sang sweetly, "Some Day We Will Understand," "Safe in Arms of Jesus," "Good Night, Beloved," the latter being one of his favorites, and the one he and little Sadie sang together the night before he passed away.

"Sleep on, beloved, sleep and take thy rest."
